44. Conversion of property to a different use.—If a person converts a property to a different use or purpose than the one provided under a scheme, master plan or classification map without the previous approval in writing of the Authority, he shall be liable to punishment of fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees per day from the date of its conversion till the default continues or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with both.

45. Ejectment of unauthorized occupants.—(1) Subject to provision of an opportunity of hearing, the Chairman or any person authorized by the Chairman may summarily eject any person in unauthorized occupation of any land or property vested in the Authority and may for such ejectment use such force as may be necessary.

(2) Subject to provision of an opportunity of hearing, the Chairman or any person authorized by the Chairman may, on his own motion or on the application of the owner, summarily eject any person in unauthorized occupation of any land or plot in a housing scheme developed and controlled by the Authority and may, for such ejectment, use such force as may be necessary.

(3) Nothing contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall prohibit the Chairman or any person authorized by the Chairman to proceed against such person on commission of an offence, as provided in this Ordinance.

46. Removal of building, etc. erected or used in contravention of this Ordinance.—(1) If any building, structure, work or land is erected, constructed or used in contravention of the provisions of this Ordinance or of any rule, regulation or order made thereunder, the Chairman or any person authorized by him or the Authority in this behalf, may, by order in writing, require the owner, occupier, user or person in control of such building, structure, work or land to remove, demolish or alter the building, structure or work or to use it in such manner so as to bring such erection, construction or user in accordance with the said provisions of this Ordinance or of any rule, regulation or order made thereunder.

(2) If an order under sub-section (1) in respect of any building, structure, work or land is not complied with within such time as may be specified therein, the Chairman or any person authorized by him or the Authority in this behalf, may, after giving the person affected by the order an opportunity of being heard, remove, demolish or alter the building, structure or work, or stop the use of the land by sealing the premises or land and, in so doing, may use such force as may be necessary and may also recover the cost therefor, from the person responsible for the erection, construction or use of the building, structure, work or land in contravention of the provisions as aforesaid.

47. Power to dispose of land.—The Authority may retain, or may lease, sell, exchange, rent or otherwise dispose of any land vested in it.

48. Police assistance.—The officer-in-charge of a police station shall render such police assistance as the deputy commissioner may require in the discharge of his functions under this Ordinance.
49. Jurisdiction of courts barred.—Save as otherwise provided by this Ordinance, no court or other authority shall have jurisdiction to question the legality of anything done or any action taken under this Ordinance by or at the instance of the Authority.

50. Power to make rules.—(1) The Government may, on the recommendation of the Authority and by notification in the official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Prior to formal prescription, the draft rules shall be published in the official Gazette and on website of the Authority for eliciting public opinion within such time period as may be considered appropriate in the circumstances.

51. Power to make regulations.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and any rules prescribed hereunder, the Authority may, by publication in the official Gazette and uploading on its website, make regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Prior to formal prescription, the draft regulations shall be published on the website of the Authority for eliciting public opinion within such time period as may be considered appropriate in the circumstances.

52. Removal of difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any provision of this Ordinance, the President may make such orders or give such directions as are necessary to remove the difficulty.

53. Overriding effect.—The provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.
